

Privacy Policy

Last updated: October 11, 2025

This Privacy Policy explains how Amplify Creator (“the Company”, “We”, “Us”, or “Our”) handles information when You use Our application (“the Service”). We respect Your privacy and are committed to protecting it. Amplify Creator does not collect, store, share, or process any personal data outside Your device. All information and files You create with the app remain stored locally on Your device and under Your sole control.

Interpretation and Definitions

Application refers to Amplify Creator, the software program provided by the Company.

Device means any device that can access the Service, such as a computer, smartphone, or tablet.

Personal Data refers to any information relating to an identified or identifiable individual.

Service refers to the Application.

You means the individual using the Service.

Information Handling

Amplify Creator does not collect, process, analyze, transmit, or store any personally identifiable information, usage data, or device data externally. All data created or managed through the Application remains entirely local to Your device and is never sent to Our servers or third parties.

We do not collect analytics or diagnostics data. We do not use cookies or tracking technologies. We do not require registration, accounts, or cloud synchronization. We do not share or sell any information to third parties. Because no personal data is collected or processed, there is no transfer, disclosure, or retention of such data.

GDPR Compliance (EU/EEA Users)

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), Amplify Creator acts as a non-controller and non-processor of personal data, as no user data is collected, processed, or transmitted. Since data remains locally on Your device, You retain complete control of it. No personal information leaves Your device; thus, there is no need for cross-border transfer mechanisms, processing agreements, or consent management. Your GDPR rights—such as access, rectification, deletion, or portability—remain inherently fulfilled because no personal information is collected by Us.

CCPA and CPRA Compliance (California Users)

In alignment with the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) and the California Privacy Rights Act (CPRA): We do not collect personal information. We do not sell or share personal information. We do not engage in profiling, advertising, or cross-context behavioral tracking. Because We do not collect or store personal information, there are no data disclosure, opt-out, or deletion requests to process under these laws.

Children's Privacy

Amplify Creator does not collect or store any personal information from children or any users. The application is safe to use by individuals of all ages as no data is shared or transmitted externally.

Security

All information You create within the app remains on Your device and is protected by Your device's operating system security mechanisms. No external data transmission occurs.

Links to Other Websites

Amplify Creator does not include links to external websites or services that process user data. If You manually follow an external link, their respective privacy policies apply.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this policy to reflect changes in legal requirements or app functionality. Any future version will be made available within the app or on Our website.
